

Fachdienst Frühe Hilfen (Englisch) Early support services

Counselling for pregnant women and parents with children aged 0-3 years. We answer your questions and give support concerning:

- pregnancy
- living with a baby
- the development of your child
- problems in the family

We work together with midwives, doctors, hospitals and other counselling services.

If you want, we can also visit you at home.

Counselling is free and strictly confidential, meaning that we will not share any information regarding you or your counselling sessions with others.

Counselling is there for all parents and families, regardless of country of origin or religious beliefs.

If you feel that your German is not good enough, we can provide a translator.

Feel free to call or message us. We are happy to receive your call or email.
